Exhibitor, Sponsor, and Advertiser Rules and Regulations

Upon submission of their applications for the conference, Exhibitors and Sponsors agree to abide by the following:

EXHIBIT/SPACE ASSIGNMENTS. Virtual booth and event sponsor requests will be given priority in order of receipt of applications and payment. The Division for Early Childhood (DEC) reserves the right to make final assignments.

PAYMENT POLICY. Full payment for exhibit space or sponsorship must be received by November 20, 2020. DEC reserves the right to refuse the use of the virtual space or sponsor benefit if payment is not made by the date indicated above.

USE OF SPACE. The subletting of virtual space is prohibited. DEC reserves the right to exclude or require modification of any videos, display, or on-line demonstration, which in its sole discretion it considers unsuitable or not in keeping with the character of the show. DEC reserves the right to demand modification of the appearance, dress or person used in connection with videos, displays, or on-line demonstrations. Preference is business or business casual dress.

CANCELLATION/REFUNDS. In the event the Exhibitor cancels its reservation for virtual space on or before January 1, 2021, the Exhibitor will receive a 100% refund. Exhibitors who cancel on or after January 2, 2021, will forfeit the entire fee. No refunds will be made if the virtual space is not used or for space not used part of the time.

ENDORSEMENT OF PRODUCTS BY THE DEC. By agreeing to sponsor and/or exhibit at the DEC Conference, this does not in any way mean that DEC supports and/or endorses your product, service, company, or organization. Any promotions that the Sponsor or Exhibitor may do before, during, or after the event shall not imply that a product, service, company, or organization is endorsed or supported in any way by DEC.

PARTICIPATION. Participation as an Exhibitor and/or Sponsor does not entitle the company or organization to influence the content planning of the DEC Conference.

SECURITY. Exhibitors and Sponsors should not share their virtual conference platform account login information with anyone outside of their organization. DEC, its officers, agents, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, and members (separately or collectively) cannot accept responsibility for any damage (in terms of modification, misuse, or other causes) to the Exhibitor or Sponsor of the virtual space.

AMENDMENT OF RULES. Any and all matters or questions not specifically covered by the preceding rules and regulations shall be subject solely to the discretion of DEC.

Virtual Conference Code of Conduct

Regardless of a person's race, color, ethnicity, national origin, disability status, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected class, the Division for Early Childhood (DEC) is committed to providing a professional, supportive, respectful, safe and welcoming virtual conference space for all conference attendees, speakers, vendors, staff and sponsors. Furthermore, all participants, are expected to comply with this Virtual Conference Code of Conduct.

Expected Behavior:

- Be considerate and collaborative in speaking and listening.
- All participants are treated with respect, valuing all views and opinions.
- Strive for inclusive, transparent, and open communication.
- Acknowledge the contributions of others.
- Respect the rules and policies of Meeting or Conference Platform.

Unacceptable Behavior

- Repeated disruption of meetings or events is deemed as disrespectful.
- Speech or actions that may be viewed as intimidating, harassing, abusive, or discriminatory, including written, verbal, or visual images related to sexual orientation, race, religion, or disability.
- Real or implied threat of professional harm.
- Any recording (audio or visual) of slides or oral presentations without proper permission.
- Presentations, postings, and messages should not contain promotional materials, special offers, job offers, product announcements, or solicitation for services. DEC reserves the right to remove such messages and potentially ban sources of those solicitations.

Reporting Harassment to DEC: Please report harassment and disruptive behaviors to conference@dec-sped.org. DEC has sole discretion in determining acts that may be in violation of this Policy. Furthermore, DEC may respond in ways it deems appropriate, including (but not limited to) (1) a warning, (2) denying access to the conference, and (3) restriction from future DEC activities.
